

THE DAYTON LAW FIRM

ESTATE PLANNING SPECIALIST

Focused On Planning For Your Family's Future

Our firm helps families plan their estates and administer estates once a loved one has passed. Our attorneys can help you:

Craft comprehensive estate plans
Draft standalone documents like wills, trusts, deeds and medical directives.
Create asset protection plans
Write a power of attorney document
Make your way through the probate process
Administer an estate as an executor or trustee

If you need estate litigation representation, you need to set up a guardianship or conservatorship, or you need to apply for government benefits, we can refer you to trusted legal partners who can assist you with these procedures.

Blending Compassion With Technological Efficiency

At the Dayton Law Firm, P.C., we believe that estate planning must accommodate the human and logistical parts of the process to provide successful results for clients. We work with estates of all sizes and treat each client with respect. Over the years, we have developed our own templates built into custom software so we can help you plan and administer your estate. Our approach emphasizes state compliance for California residents and property owners. We combine our special documents and techniques with industry standard practices and templates that have confirmed success in California. This allows us to handle your needs with understanding and efficiency.
