Pro Bono Corner: Susanna Tang

This quarter, we highlight chapter member Susanna Tang and her contributions to our Pro Bono committee. Susanna has been engaged in FPA pro-bono activities since 2016. She is passionate about promoting financial literacy and helping people reach their financial goals. She has been a volunteer counselor for AARP TaxAide, preparing tax returns for seniors and low-income families since 2016. Susanna has been a 3rd Decade mentor providing personalized financial guidance helping young adults to build their financial future since 2022. She also serves as the Assistant Treasurer for Upward Scholars' Board of Directors. Upward Scholar provides adult immigrants education and career development support.

Celebrate FPA's 25th Anniversary by taking the '25 in 2025' Financial Wellness Pledge and sharing your expertise with those who need it most. Your expertise can change lives: Take the Pledge!
